

Idea 0: The Golden Rule

All else being equal, person A is more worthy of your trust than person B:

- Person A treats you in the way she wants to be treated herself.
- Person B treats you in the way she doesn't want to be treated herself.

Idea 1: Reliability through Keeping Promises

All else being equal, person A is more worthy of your trust than person B:

- Person A keeps her morally acceptable promises, even when her cost is high.
- Person B makes morally acceptable promises that she intends to break.

False

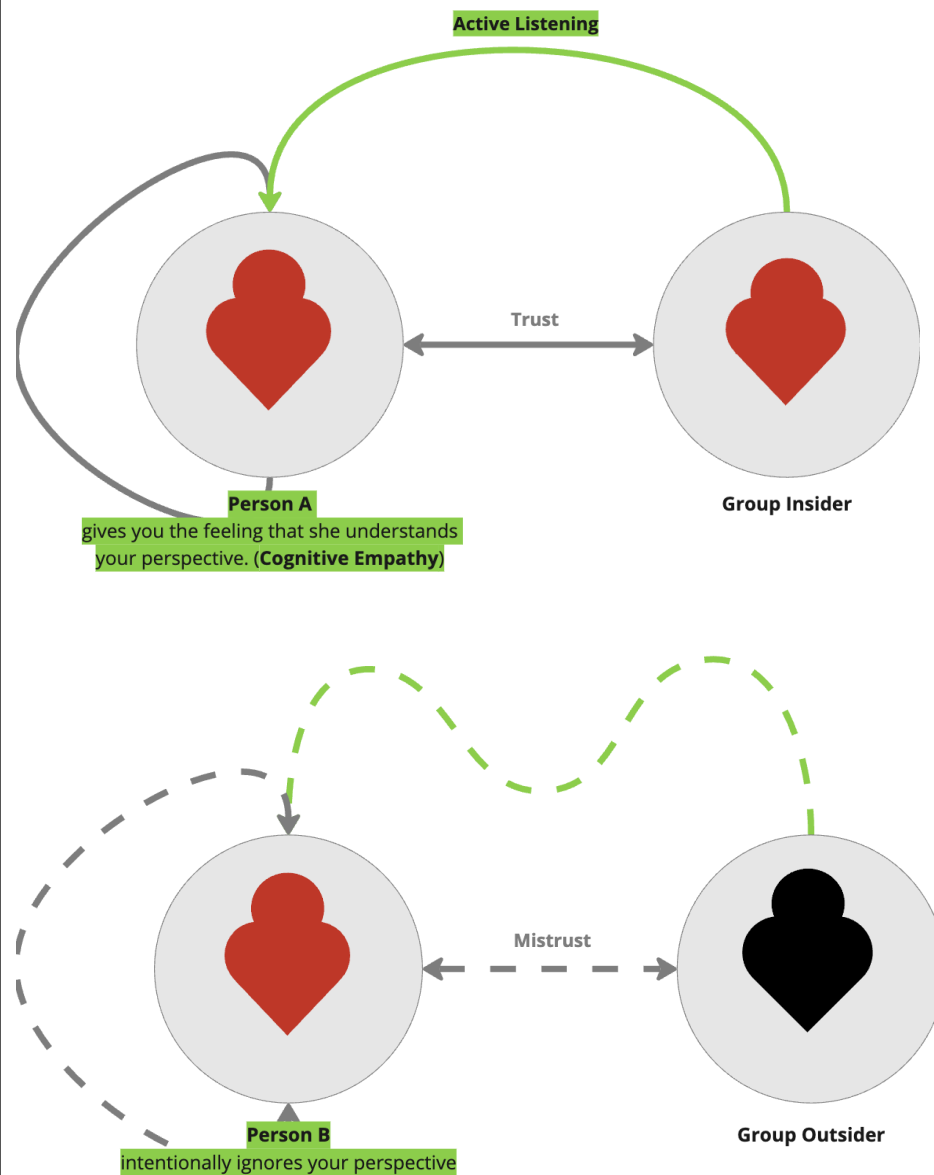

Don't know

False

Idea 2: Cognitive Empathy through Active Listening

All else being equal, person A is more worthy of your trust than person B:

- Person A gives you the feeling that she understands your perspective.
- Person B intentionally ignores your perspective

False

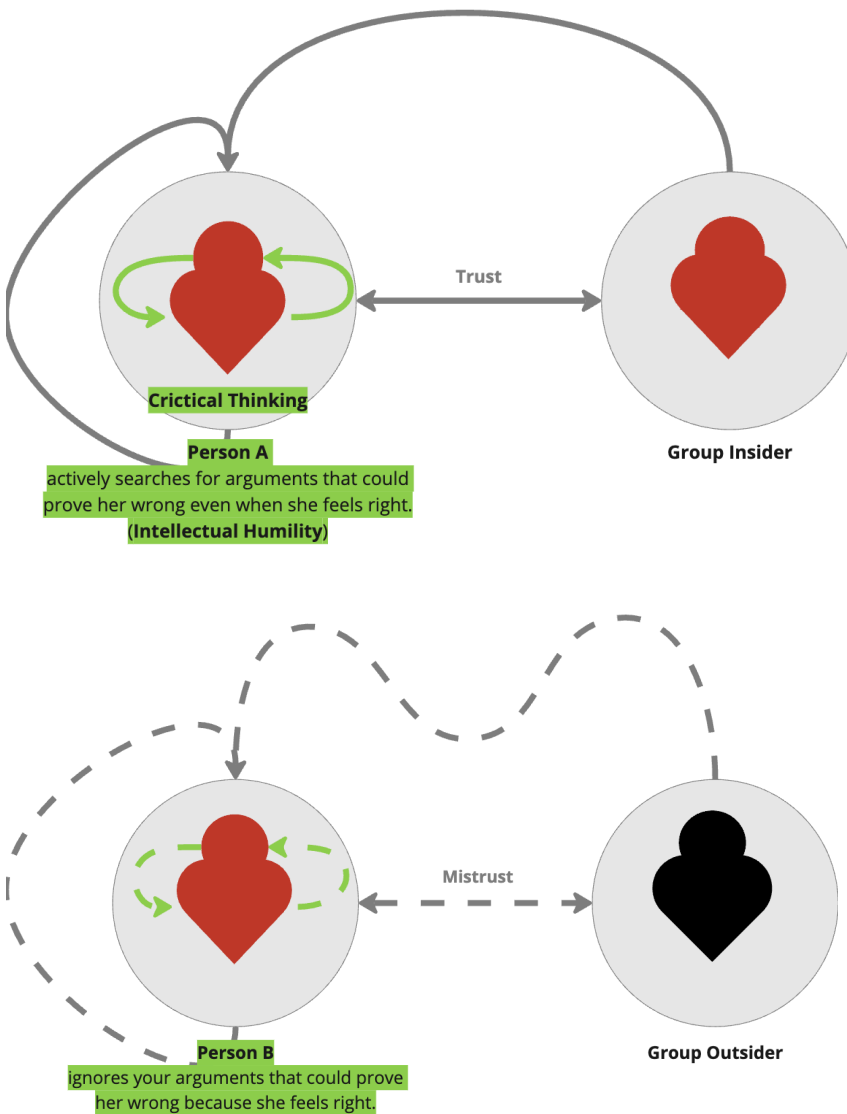

Don't know

False

Idea 3: Intellectual Humility through Critical Thinking

All else being equal, person A is more worthy of your trust than person B:

- Person A actively searches for arguments that could prove her wrong even when she feels right.
- Person B ignores your arguments that could prove her wrong because she feels right.

False

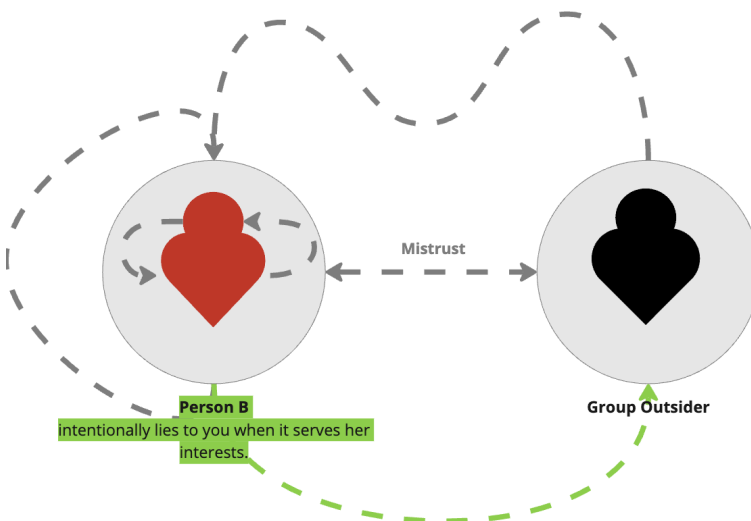

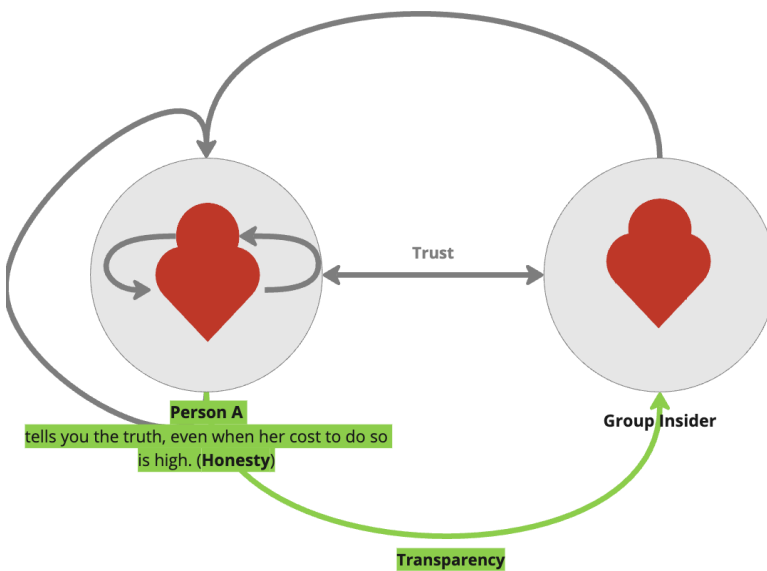

Don't know

False

Idea 4: Honesty through Transparency

All else being equal, person A is more worthy of your trust than person B:

- Person A tells you the truth, even when her cost to do so is high.
- Person B intentionally lies to you when it serves her interests.

False

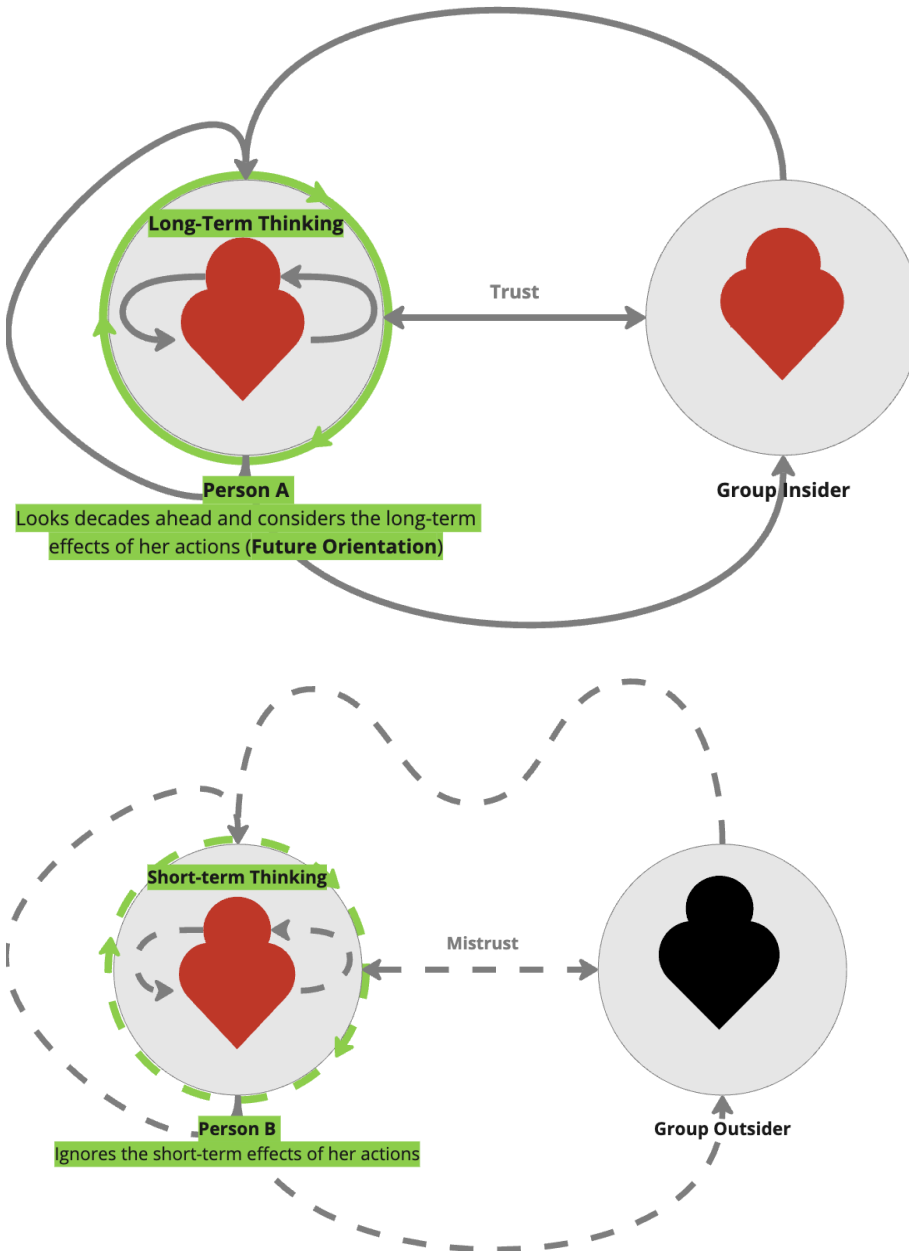

Don't know

False

Idea 5: Future Orientation through Long-Term Thinking

All else being equal, person A is more worthy of your trust than person B:

- Person A looks decades ahead and considers the long-term effects of her actions
- Person B doesn't look ahead and ignores even the short-term effects of her actions.

False

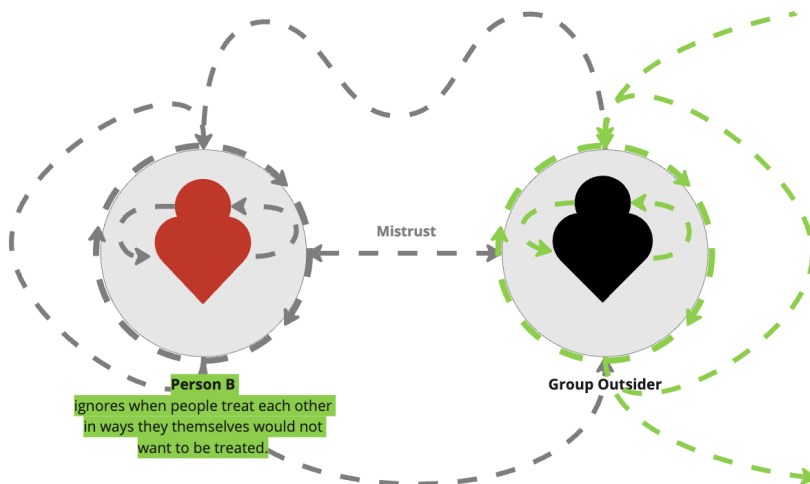

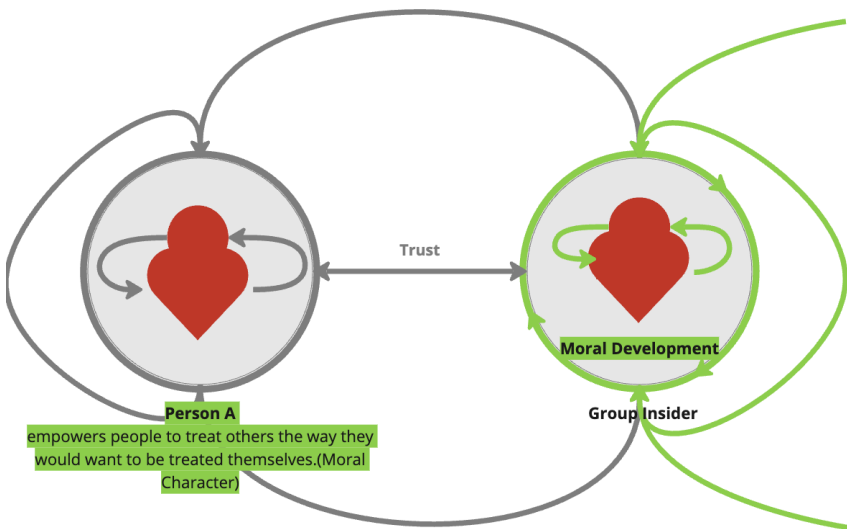

Don't know

False

Idea 6: Moral Character through Moral Development

All else being equal, person A is more worthy of your trust than person B:

- Person A empowers people to treat others the way they would want to be treated themselves.
- Person B ignores when people treat each other in ways they would not want to be treated.

False

Don't know

False

Trust principle 1: Reliability through Keeping Promises
The world would be a better place if more people followed these principles: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Golden Aspect (In-Group): Keep morally acceptable promises, even when the personal cost is high. • Silver Aspect (Out-Group): Don't make morally acceptable promises you intend to break.
False	Don't know	False

Trust Principle 2: Cognitive Empathy through Active Listening
The world would be a better place if more people followed these principles: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Golden Aspect (In-Group): Give people the feeling that you understand them, even when there are fundamental disagreements. • Silver Aspect (Out-Group): Don't ignore the perspectives of others, even when there are fundamental disagreements.
False	Don't know	False

Trust Principle 3: Intellectual Humility through Critical Thinking
The world would be a better place if more people followed these principles: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Golden Aspect (In-Group): Actively search for arguments that could prove you wrong even when you feel right. • Silver Aspect (Out-Group): Don't ignore arguments that could prove you wrong even when you feel right.
False	Don't know	False

Trust Principle 4: Honesty through Transparency

The world would be a better place if more people followed these principles:

- Golden Aspect (In-Group): Tell the truth with kindness, even at a personal cost.
- Silver Aspect (Out-Group): Avoid intentionally lying to advance your interests.

FalseDon't know*False*Trust Principle 5: Future Orientation through Long-Term Thinking

The world would be a better place if more people followed these principles:

- Golden Aspect (In-Group): Look decades ahead and consider the long-term effects of your actions.
- Silver Aspect (Out-Group): Don't ignore the short-term effects of your actions.

FalseDon't know*False*Trust Principle 6: Moral Character through Moral Development

The world would be a better place if more people followed these principles:

- Golden Aspect (In-Group): Empower people to treat others the way they would want to be treated themselves.
- Silver Aspect (Out-Group): Help people avoid treating others in ways they would not want to be treated themselves.

FalseDon't know*False